XII- Domestic Hot Water

Summary:

- Domestic hot water heaters can be high efficiency modular units.
- Found in high school
- Notice the PVC pipe.
- Flu stacks also indicate that it’s a condensing system.
- The temperature should be set to 120°F for general use and then boosted at a location that requires more heat (dishwasher 180°F).
- Square system rather than large and round with a tank.